IMPORTANT INFORMATION

FINAL EXAMINATIONS

As final examinations approach, all students should take a few minutes to review the Law School rules relating to examinations. These rules may be found in §607-609 of the Academic Code and §203-205 of the Dean's Office Regulations.

According to §607 (f)(1) of the Code, all examinations are graded anonymously. Students should not discuss the examination process, including the possibility of exam deferral or exam accommodation with faculty members. Any attempt by a student to identify himself/herself to a professor by placing notes or messages on an examination or exam booklet compromises the anonymous grading system. All questions should be directed to Associate Dean of Student Affairs office or the Registrar's Office. Any compromise of the anonymous grading system by a student constitutes a violation of the Code of Conduct and could result in suspension or expulsion.

Exam Reminders

Anonymous numbers. Anonymous numbers must be placed on all examination booklets and on the examination itself. In the unlikely event you forget to put your anonymous number on your papers before time is called, you may do so at the proctor's table when you turn in your exam. If you continue to write after the proctor has told you to stop, your examination number and the fact that you did not stop when told will be reported to the Registrar's Office and may ultimately be reported to the Office of Student Affairs.

Open book exams. You may bring into an open book exam only those items designated by the professor. If you are in doubt as to what can be brought into the exam, check with your professor before the examination.

Scrap paper. Scrap paper will only be permitted in an examination if the professor has specifically told the Registrar that it will be permitted. The proctor will distribute one scrap paper book to you during the examination.

Student ID. Finally, remember to bring your student ID to each of your examinations. Students must be positively identified by the Registrar or proctor before sitting for each exam. A drivers license is not a Widener student ID.

Lavatory breaks. You are reminded that the honor code applies during the entire exam and a lavatory break does not mean there is a break in the honor code rules.

Students are reminded that the Student Code of Conduct §202(1) requires you to report all Code of Conduct violations.

ABA Student Health Insurance Plan Enrollment for Graduates Deadline – May 22, 2010

Dear ABA Law School Dean:

Numerous graduating third year law students who are either currently unemployed or on deferred employment have inquired about the availability of health insurance from the ABA Law Student Division. For many of these law student graduates, their current health insurance will expire this summer and without employer health insurance, they will be uninsured for an indefinite period of time.

The ABA Law Student Division health insurance plan with United Healthcare Student Resources (UHCSR) offers a health insurance coverage extension for up to one year PROVIDED the student is a member of the ABA Law Student Division, currently carrying the Division's plan with UHCSR, AND there is no break (lapse) in that coverage between the date of graduation and the first day of this one-year extension.

 For all students continuing coverage, if you do not re-enroll in the plan prior to the end date of your coverage, your insurance will be cancelled at the end of period for which premium has been paid. To ensure there is not a lapse in coverage, PLEASE mark your calendars and make certain you submit your premium on a timely basis and pay as required.*

Graduating law students who are not currently carrying this health insurance coverage with the ABA Law Student Division UHCSR plan may still qualify for the graduate extension by enrolling and purchasing the last quarter of the 2009-2010 health plan no later than May 22, 2010.

Enrollment in the health plan by May 22, 2010 is an ABSOLUTE requirement of the carrier for graduating students seeking the extension coverage. Additionally, this program is offered to ABA Law Student Division members only. If you are not currently enrolled in the ABA – you may join by calling 800.285.2221 or visiting <http://www.abanet.org/join/>. Students may view the health plan benefits at <https://www.uhcsr.com/ABA>.

• Although it is usually an eligibility requirement for initial enrollment, UHCSR worked with the ABA Law Student Division and agreed to waive the 31-day class attendance requirement through May 22, 2010 for graduating students enrolling in this plan. UHCSR sent notification to all its customer service representatives advising them of this exception for the ABA Law Student Division plan.

 Students who are currently insured under this plan can continue coverage up to one year provided there is no break (lapse) in coverage.*

Please note that after August 1, 2010, the new 2010-2011 plan rates will apply. Each student has a choice of one of the benefits plans. Plan I has higher benefits than Plan II. Make your selection carefully; you cannot upgrade coverage after the initial purchase of the Plan for the policy year.

If you are currently insured under another UHCSR school endorsed plan, you cannot receive a refund on your school UHCSR plan if you choose to purchase additional, overlapping coverage under the ABA Law Student Division plan.

Since benefits may be different than your current plan, you may view the health plan benefits and enroll online at <https://www.uhcsr.com/ABA>. Please contact UHCSR directly at 800.505.5450 for specific information on the plans.

Because health insurance coverage is important, we encourage you to pass along this message to all third year graduating law students in your school.

Thank you,
The ABA Law Student Division

CAMPUS SERVICES

QUIET HOURS:

There will be mandatory quiet hours in effect in the dormitories and apartments on campus starting Wednesday, April 28, through the end of the semester. Quiet hours will be in effect 24 hours a day until final exams are over. Any problems during the day should be reported to Campus Services. Any problems after hours should be reported to Campus Safety. Thank you for your consideration and cooperation.

REMINDER FOR APARTMENT RESIDENTS:

Apartment deposits are due by Friday, May 7. Payments should be made to the Campus Services Office. No apartments will be held after May 7, without a deposit. Apartment leases for the 2010/11 academic year are ready to be signed. All apartment residents must sign their lease no later than Friday, May 7. If you have any questions, please contact Chris Burrell at cmburrell@widener.edu or stop by the Campus Services office.

DORMITORY CLOSING:

The dormitories will be closing at 12 noon on Friday, May 14. All residents will need to vacate their dormitory room and return their key to the Campus Services office before they leave campus. You will need approval from the Campus Services office to remain in your dorm room beyond this date. If you have signed up for I.T.A.P., Bar Review housing or summer housing, you are exempt from this deadline. If you are graduating, you must vacate your room by Sunday, May 16th. Any questions or concerns can be directed to Chris Burrell at cmburrell@widener.edu or Kim Louisignau at kalouisignau@widener.edu.

ATTENTION ALL GRADUATES:

If you are graduating, or if you will not be returning to campus for the fall 2010 semester, please remember to close your student mailbox and return the mailbox key. Just stop by the mailroom during their scheduled hours to fill out the form for forwarding your mail and return your key. After hours, just put your key in an envelope, along with your forwarding address, and drop it through the mail slot in the window.

If you are using one of the lockers on campus, and will not be returning in the fall, please return your locker key to the Campus Services office, located in the Passmore house. You will be given a voucher for the refund of the locker key deposit.

Please remember to turn in your mailbox and locker keys before you leave campus for the final time. Thank you!

AMERICAN COLLEGE OF BANKRUPTCY SUMMER FELLOWSHIP

Environmental Law Clinic

Summer Intern Program

Looking for an opportunity to gain some practical experience this summer by working on real cases for real clients?

Want to earn credit towards a Pro Bono Distinction honor at graduation?

Wondering what environmental law involves and what we do in the Clinic?

Then a volunteer Summer Intern position in the Environmental and Natural Resources Law Clinic may be the thing for you! Open to students who have completed their 1st or 2nd year in the Regular Division, or their 1st, 2nd, or 3rd year in the Extended Division, a Summer Internship will look great on your resume and give you a chance to work directly in the representation of Clinic clients under the supervision of the Clinic Director. The Clinic is looking for 3-6 summer interns to help it deal with its caseload and client projects. Hours are flexible - part-time and evening hours are OK—and the projects are interesting and challenging (for example, this summer we will be conducting a trial before the Pennsylvania Environmental Hearing Board).

If you want to get more details or apply, contact Professor Kristl (ktkristl@widener.edu) or stop by his Clinic office (L256) on Monday afternoons, Tuesday mornings, Wednesdays, or Thursdays.

The Delaware Journal of Corporate Law 2010 Summer Write-On Competition

Pickup for the Journal summer writing competition begins on Sunday, May 9, and ends on Sunday, June 20. You may pick up the packet at the Library circulation desk or download the packet on the Delaware Journal of Corporate Law's TWEN website.

Participants have three weeks from the date of pick-up to complete the assignment. Papers are due by 4:00 p.m. on the date due and should be delivered by email to djcl@widener.edu or by hardcopy to either the Delaware Journal of Corporate Law Office in Polishook, or to the circulation desk of the Legal Information Center if the Journal Office is closed. Papers that are mailed must be postmarked no later than the due date. No late papers will be accepted.

In addition to any paper which is submitted after the deadline, the following submissions will be deemed ineligible for Journal membership:

1. Where the author's cumulative GPA, through Spring 2009, is below 2.7;
2. Where the paper contains evidence of plagiarism or other Honor Code violations (specifically Section 202(a), which includes: (1) the unauthorized giving or receiving of material aid or assistance; (3) the unauthorized use of information; and (4) the giving or obtaining of any unfair academic advantage) (NOTE: These findings will also be referred to the Disciplinary Board); or
3. Where the participant has used outside research.

The packet includes all sources that may be used for the note. Sources have been deliberately limited to ensure concentration on certain issues. There is to be no outside research. Participants may, however, consult hornbooks, dictionaries, style manuals, and the Bluebook (18th edition).

If you have any questions, please e-mail Suzanne Lufadeju at solu-fadeju@mail.widener.edu. We look forward to reviewing your submissions.

Check out what some of The Delaware Journal of Corporate Law's alumni had to say at our Panel Discussion:

"The skills you obtain on the Journal are easily transferable to any area of the law."

Greg Werkheiser, Partner, Morris Nichols, Arsht & Tunnell LLP
(Articles Editor, Volume 21 Board)

"I joined the Journal because of its reputation and national recognition."

Stephanie Habelow, Smith, Katzenstein, Furlow, LLP
(Articles Editor, Volume 34 Board)

"Corporate law does not exist in a vacuum; that is why the Journal seeks to publish articles beyond its corporate focus."

Kevin Gallagher, Richards, Layton & Finger
(Editor-in-Chief, Volume 34 Board)

"You join the Journal for the relationships you build and to, ultimately, find a job."

"I didn't develop an interest in corporate law until after I joined."

"If you do not want to practice corporate law, you should still join the Journal, and then take classes in the area you wish to practice."

Tom Uebler, Associate, Richards, Layton & Finger
(Editor-in-Chief, Volume 32 Board)

"You join the Journal because of its prestige and national recognition not because of its corporate law focus"

Danielle Kuzminski, Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom LLP
(Editor-in-Chief, Volume 33 Board)

All of our alums agree that by becoming a member of the Delaware Journal of Corporate Law, you are on the right path to a successful legal career.

So what are you waiting for?

IMPORTANT DATES:

2RD & 3ED students: Submit topics to Dave DiDonato for approval by April 28, and turn in article by June 10.

1RD & 2ED students: Pick up Summer-Write on packet from May 9, until June 20.

Good Luck!

The Delaware Journal of Corporate Law

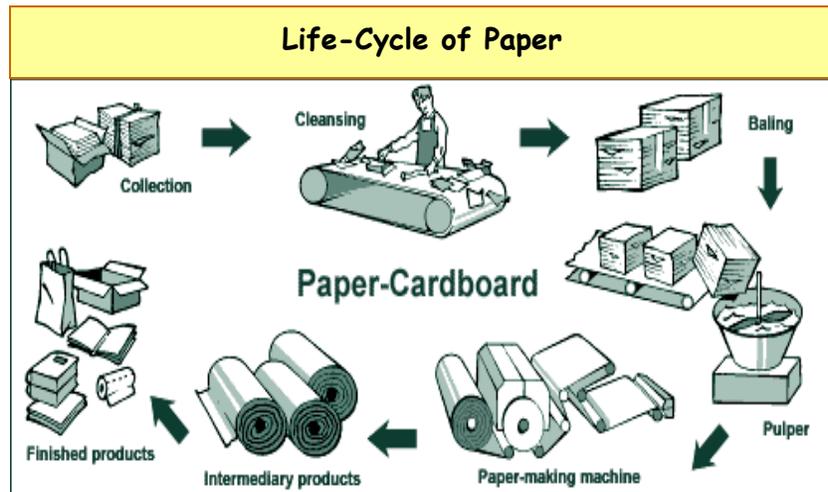

2010 Superior Authorship Competition

The Journal is currently accepting scholarly articles from students for its Superior Authorship Competition. This competition provides an alternative means of gaining membership to this law review for those students not yet affiliated with a scholarly journal on campus. Aside from the corporate nature of this law review, membership provides those of all interests with an opportunity to perfect their writing, organizational, bluebook, and editing skills. Law review membership and the skills it provides are also highly regarded by employers.

There are, however, certain requirements that need to be fulfilled in order to be eligible for the competition. In short, you must:

1. be a 2RD or 3ED student;
2. have earned a 2.7 GPA or higher as of the end of the spring 2010 semester; and
3. topics must be approved by the Editor-in-Chief by Wednesday, April 28, 2010, by 4:00 p.m.
4. submissions are due in the Law Review's Office by Thursday, June 10, 2010, by 4:00 p.m.

Other requirements do apply, such as topic approval and paper style. For a full list of requirements and further information regarding this competition, please direct inquiries to the office of the Editor-in-Chief, David D. DiDonato, Room P503, phone 477-2106, e-mail dbdidonato@mail.widener.edu

DID YOU KNOW?...

- Every day, American businesses use enough paper to circle the globe more than 20 times!
- Every ton of paper recovered for recycling saves 3.3 cubic yards of landfill space.
- Over 47 million tons of the paper Americans use each year is recovered for recycling. This is made into a wide variety of goods such as new newsprint, boxes and office paper, paper towels, tissue products, insulation, cereal boxes, molded packaging, hydro-mulch, gypsum wallboard - even compost and kitty litter!
- 80% of U.S. papermakers use some recovered fiber in manufacturing, and nearly 200 mills use ONLY recovered paper for their fiber.
- Today, more than 50 percent of the paper used in the U.S. each year is recovered for recycling
- The average American uses 650 lbs. of paper per year.
- 100 million tons of wood could be saved each year if all that paper was actually recycled!

Please remember to use the Widener Law recycling containers to recycle on campus. It is our responsibility to preserve and protect our natural resources for future generations.

Help Wanted

FINANCIAL AID OFFICE Position Available

Taking a summer course? The Financial Aid Office is looking for a student to do general clerical work. Requirements: minimum GPA 2.0 & work-study eligible. The hours are flexible, up to 20 hours a week and no Friday's. Interested students should contact the Financial Aid Office at 302-477-2272 for more information or stop by the Financial Aid Office.

RESEARCH ASSISTANT

Professor John Culhane is looking for one or two research assistants for the summer, and possibly for the next academic year (2010-2011). Student will work on a number of projects including a book on civil unions; an article on informed consent; and a blog that covers a number of different topics. Applicants should have strong research, writing, and analytical skills, a GPA of at least 2.7, and be able to devote about 10 hours each week to the assigned projects.

Interested students should send, by email (johnculhane@comcast.net) the following items, each attached separately:

- A written statement of interest;
- A c.v. or resume;
- A copy of the law school transcript (may be unofficial copy); and
- A writing sample that best showcases analytical, research and writing ability.

Professor Culhane will respond to each application as it is received, and will then schedule interviews with qualified candidates. Interested candidates will benefit by submitting their applications as soon as possible.

Law Day 2010 is Monday, May 3

Although Law Day is officially May 1 every year (36 USC 113), programs celebrating Law Day can be held on or near that date. This year the Delaware State Bar Association is celebrating on May 3 with a Law Day luncheon and speaker. The keynote address, by Justice Donald W. Lemons of Virginia's Supreme Court, will be about Chief Justice John Marshall's role in developing the American legal system. The idea for Law Day was envisioned in 1957 by ABA President Charles S. Rhyne. President Eisenhower issued a proclamation designating May 1, 1958, as Law Day, and every year since then a presidential proclamation has urged Americans to celebrate their system of government and to respect the rule of law.

Off-Campus Access to Library Subscription Databases

Databases listed on the law library's homepage can also be accessed at home or wherever you use your laptop computer. Click on the database name, such as HeinOnline or ProQuest, and you will be prompted to enter your name and the barcode number from the back of your student ID card. This is the tiny 14-digit number located in the center of the card directly above the actual barcode. Graduating students will retain this access until mid-summer.
